

Conflict Minerals Declaration

Effective on January 1, 2026

As a responsible global supplier, Aven International Inc. remains fully committed to compliance with all laws and regulations regarding Conflict Minerals, particularly those outlined in Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

While Aven does not directly source or process conflict minerals including Tin, Tantalum, Tungsten, or Gold these materials may be present in our finished products in the form of solder or as components in metal alloys.

As part of our due diligence, we proactively engage with our supply chain partners to verify their continued compliance with applicable regulations. Based on the information provided by our suppliers, to the best of our knowledge, we confirm that any conflict minerals present in our products are sourced from conflict-free regions.

Aven International Inc. remains dedicated to ethical sourcing and maintaining transparency in our supply chain.

Sincerely,

Mark Kanpurwala Vice President, Sales and Marketing Aven International Inc.
